CULVER CADET UNDER ARREST

CAPT. E. W. BRADY, OF INDIANA, IS DEAD AT WASHINGTON.

Body of a Drowned Boy Found at Delphi-Death of an Aged Minister-German Catholics in Session.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BEDFORD, Ind., May 3.-There are no new developments in the trouble between the stone mill operatives and their employes that has any promise of an early adjustment of the difficulty that will be satisfactory to all concerned. Everything is quiet in the mill yards, where work has been suspended since Friday. Information in regard to the trouble is very hard to get, as the men refuse to divulge anything except that no justice is being given them In the way of wages that are paid at this time. It is said that not more than two of the many mills here are paying the same

The sawyers have made objections to statements that have been made through the local press that they are on strike, and assert that the operators shut down their mills rather than pay the wages asked. INDIANA OBITUARY.

Funeral of John Plum Teeple, Who

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., May 3 .- An unusual incident of the funeral of John Plum Teeple, the centenarian who died here Thursday, was the fact that Judge William Andrew. aged ninety-six, and formerly pastor of the Swendenborgian Church here and a lifelong friend of the deceased, assisted the pastor of the Christian Church in conducting the services. Judge Andrew, who also served several years on the bench, delivered a very ching and eloquent tribute to the memory of the centenarian. The funeral was one of the largest held in this city in years. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 3.-Resolutions were passed to-day in a number of the churches demanding that the recent reported violations of law be thoroughly investigated, and that the people of the community stand by the officers of the court and lend all the assistance possible in securing the conviction of all the guilty. The resolutions had in view especially the Stevens-Shively affair.

MAIL POUCH ROBBERY.

the Kind in a Year.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., May 3.-The second mail pouch robbery to occur at the Panhandle station in this city in the past year occurred some time between midnight and 2 o'clock this morning. It is the custom to transfer a number of pouches of mail mathere, and occasionally, between the time of the trains, the pouches are allowed to lie on the trucks on the platformein front of the station. It was while they were so placed that the robbery occurred this morning, a sack of first-class mail being slit open with a knife and nearly all of the contents taken. What the loss will be cannot be determined, but there is said to have been a number of registered letters and valuable packages in the sack opened. The postofice and railway officials are making an in-

ACCUSED OF FORGERY.

Former Culver Cadet Is Placed Under Arrest at Muncie.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., May 3 .- J. G. Jay, the seventeen-year-old son of F. W. Jay, a prominent citizen of Hartford City, is in jail here for forging a $35 check on his father.

Jay was arrested last night at a dance in this city. He induced Robert Winters, of this city, a friend of his father, to indorse the check. The father refuses to intercede for his son. He says the boy has been living too fast and must "take his own medicine." Young Jay was graduated last June from Culver Military Academy. The Delaware Bank, of Muncie, cashed the check.

Christian Church Dedicated.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., May 3.-The new Christian Church, just completed at the cost of about $20,000, was dedicated to-day by the Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind. There were large audiences both morning and evening and more than $5,000 was raised during the day. Among the subscriptions was one for $500 from Daniel G. Reid, the New York millionaire, once of Richmond. The Rev. Sweeney preached two eloquent sermons. The new church is a brick structure, with stone trimmings. It is fifty by ninety feet. There are handsome art windows, the three largest of which are memorials. The pipe organ has not yet arrived. The Christian congregation was first organized in 1859 by the Rev. Elijah Goodwin, of Indianapolis. The membership now is in excess of two hundred. Mrs. Mary Dunham, who is still living, was one of the charter members. One of the large art windows is a memorial to her, given by her children.

RICHMOND, Ind., May 3.—Definite steps a new United Presbyterian Church in this city. The cost will be borne by Daniel G. Reid, the New York millionaire, entirely, and it is understood that he will expend Frank H. Glass, a member of the has returned from a trip to Cleveand, O., Pittsburg, Pa., Toledo, O., and South Bend, Ind., where he inspected various churches with a view to formulating some general plans to be followed in buildng the church. Oliver Bogue, Mr. Reid's rivate secretary, accompanied Mr. Glass. Next week Mr. Bogue will be here to meet committee of the church. A New York architect has been at work on the plans for some time. The edifice is to be solid Bedford stone and will surpass any church structure the city has. Mr. Reid's mother was a member of this congregation.

Found His Wife Dead.

special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELKHART, Ind., May 3.-When Philip Klopfenstein returned from work to-day he found the doors of his home locked. He burst in the door and found his wife dead, and the baby, one year old, was crying in its crib. His wife had prepared to take bath and was partially disrobed. The neighbors had heard the child crying for several hours, but thought it simply pee-Klopfenstein forced the door with such strength the casing was torn off and part of it hit the child, but no serious njury resulted. The deceased was twenty years old. Heart disease is the supposed

THE ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Spectacular Effects to Exceed Those of Any Previous Fair. F. M. Crumden, in Review of Reviews.

Mere cost and bigness do not constitute excellence, but magnitude is impressive, and money does things. The St. Louis world's fair, however, has other things to recommend it than size and expenditure. In the first place, the topography of the site favors effects that could not be achieved on the flat of Jackson Park. The view from "The Apotheosis of St. Louis" across the grand court along the broad avenue between the education and electricity buildings, thence across the basin and up Fox, 24 the cascades to Festival Hall and the terrace of States, will doubtless surpass any spectacle heretofore seen at a world's fair. exposition. A crescent-shaped hill crowned by the colonnade of the States, with the imposing Festival Hall in the center of the crescent; on each extreme of the crescent, 1,900 feet apart, an ornamental restaurant pavilion; a central cascade 290 feet long, with a total fall of eighty feet in twelve leaps ranging from four to fourteen feet, and side cascades 300 feet long, with a total fall of sixty-five feet. The water will be discharged into a basin 600 feet wide. The two miles of lagoons have their beginning and end in this basin. The abundant supply of water will be drawn from the city mains, but will be filtered to a crystal clear-Between the cascades will be gardens. Each of the cascades will be framed in sculpture, consisting of sportive groups nymphs and nalads and other mythological fancies. The center cascade will be crowned by a group composition showing Liberty lifting the veil of Ignorance and protecting Truth and Justice. The east cascade will represent the Atlanti ocean, and the west cascade the Pacific, the symbolism being that the Purchase has extended liberty from ocean to ocean. Assurance is given that the three cascades will completely eclipse the cascade of the Trocadero at the Paris exposition, the cascade at St. Cloud, and the Chateau d'Eau at Marseilles.

Beauty and Business.

Engineering News. When the first power house was built at Niagara permission for the utilization of the water was obtained only on the plea that the power house was situated so far are now being taken toward the erection of away from the falls (over a mile) that it and the accompanying industrial development would not injure in the slightest the natural scenery around the great gorge. Had other power developments proceeded on similar lines no objection could rightfully be raised, but when it was demonstrated that Niagara water power enterprises would pay plenty of persons were ready to undertake them by the easiest and cheapest plan. Before that time local sentiment in the vicinity of Niagara had been strongly opposed to anything tending to injure the beauty of the falls and make them less attractive to visitors. This local sentiment disappeared when it was seen that the industrial utilization of the cataract promised greater profits.

Concerning Rumors.

Detroit Journal. A gravely worded Washington telegram explains that President Roosevelt does not contemplate visiting France at the head of a fleet of warships. But how about the equally well-founded rumor that he intends making a dash for the pole, a search for the true source of the Nile, and an investigation into the whereabouts of the mass of gold once in the possession of the Incas? Is it a fact that he will pitch for the Cleveland Baseball Club when his second presidential term expires and that at the same time he will take President Eliot's place at Harvard? Why dismiss only one rumor at a time?

Col. Rickey's Fame as a Prophet.

Buffalo Commercial. The late Colonel Rickey achieved fame as a political prophet by offering in the Hoffman House to bet that he could name a man who would be nominated by the Ohio Democrats for Governor and elected. It was eight months before the convention was to be called and Democratic Governors are scarcer than hen's teeth in Ohio, and the other end of the bet looked like picking up money in the street. Ed Stokes bet $1,000 to $100 that he couldn't do it. Rickey named Campbell, a man then unknown in New York, and took the purse.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3 .- Seven thousand people saw Indianapolis win from Louisville this afternoon by the score of 2 to 1. Kellum's pitching was the main feature of the game. He held the local and struck out four men. The scoring for Indianapolis was done in the fourth inning. After Coulter went out O'Brien and Tamsett got bases on balls and were advanced on Haydon's out to first. They scored on Kellum's three-bagger. Hogriever out, short to first. Louisville did a little business in the seventh. Kerwin, the first man up, knocked a liner to Hogriever, who let it get away. Kerwin could have made the circuit, but was held at third by the ground rule concerning balls hit into the crowd-which to-day circled the park. Odwell and Sullivan were easy outs, but Schriever's grounder to third was poorly fielded by Tamsett and the ball was dropped by Kihm, who was given an error. Schriever was safe and Kerwin scored on the play. White flied out. Egan pitched for Louisville. He gave away five bases, struck out three men and was touched for seven hits, Kellum and Fox getting two each. In the second inning O'Brien made a fine one-handed stop and caught Clymer stealing. Tamsett and Kihm figured in a pretty double in the third.

Jones made a brilliant run and ruined a beauty from Childs in the sixth. Indianapolis made two errors, Louisville none. There was no disorder. Tebeau has loaned Martin, shortstop, to Minneapolis, Sullivan is playing at short, Schaub taking his place at third. Score: Louisville AB. R. H. O. A.

Postage Stamp Perforations. New York Press. We used to separate postage stamps with shears. An Irishman of the name of Archer invented the machine which perforates the sheets and tried to sell it to the British government, but for years its practicability was doubted. Finally he received an offer of $3,000 for his patent, which he refused. After long and weary contention he got $20,000 for it. The invention is only about fifty years old. It seems singular that our revenue stamps of 1898 should not have been perforated like postage stamps, but punctured with delicate knives. But whoever gives a thought to these common things of everyday life?

Weighed Only Five Pounds.

Restless, Cried Day and Night.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Did

Wonders, Cured Her. A little over two years ago I had a little, nervous baby who weighed only five pounds at birth. At first she was restless and cross and after she was four weeks old she cried day and night, and would not sleep without narcotics. She was so nervous that we did not dare to move when she did sleep a short time, as she would wake screaming as though she was going to have a fit. We called a doctor; he called it infantile colic; said he could relieve her, could not cure her. After a short time the effect of his medicine wore off and I was in despair. I tried all known home remedies and innumerable patent medicines. At last I gave her Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and she was easy and slept without narcotics. Since that time I have used a dozen bottles and would not be without it. I am now giving it to another baby and it has the same effect, immediate relief always."—Mrs. Vincent Zidel:, Verona. N. D. "Three years ago I was taken with nervous prostration, which brought on heart trouble, and my heart would palpitate at every little noise. I had smothering spells so that at times I would nearly sink away. I got one bottle each of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I could feel good results from the first few doses. They have since effected a permanent cure. I recommend Dr. Miles' Remedies to all who suffer as I did."—Mrs. G. C. James, Fairmont, Nebraska.
